Massachusetts Towns and Counties

The organization of counties in present-day Massachusetts must be looked at from four directions: the jurisdictions of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, Plymouth Plantation, New York Colony, and the District of Maine. As the "mother of New England", Massachusetts has had a profound effect on all the other five states in the region.

At one time, Massachusetts Bay included, dominated or affected (1) Plymouth, joined Massachusetts Bay in 1685; (2) Maine, part of Massachusetts from about 1652 until 1820; (3) Rhode Island, partly settled by emigrants from the Bay and sections being part of Massachusetts until 1862; (4) Connecticut, also partly settled from Massachusetts, with several of its towns considered to be in Massachusetts until 1747; (5) New Hampshire, part of Massachusetts unofficially until 1680, with many of its coastal towns having their records in today's Essex County, Massachusetts; and (6) Vermont, with some of its southernmost towns considered part of Massachusetts before accurate surveys were done.

Taking a look at the formation of counties, let us examine in order, Plymouth, Massachusetts Bay, New York, and the District of Maine.

PLYMOUTH PLANTATION was settled in 1620, and annexed to Massachusetts Bay in 1685. It was then that the area was divided into counties:

- (1) BARNSTABLE COUNTY, 1685. Bristol County included several towns which are now in Rhode Island: Barrington, Bristol, Little Compton, Tiverton and Warren, annexed by Rhode Island in 1747, and East Providence and Pawtucket, annexed in 1862. Records of these towns before annexation are in their parent towns in Massachusetts; deeds and wills are in Bristol County, Massachusetts, at Taunton.
- (2) BRISTOL COUNTY, 1685; and
- (3) PLYMOUTH COUNTY, 1685;

MASSACHUSETTS BAY was settled in the late 1620's. It was organized into counties in 1643:

- (4) ESSEX COUNTY, 1643.
- (5) MIDDLESEX COUNTY, 1643.
- (6) NORFOLK COUNTY, 1643-1680; in 1680 the towns in Norfolk north of the current Massachusetts-New Hampshire border (3 miles north of the Merrimac River) were judged to be in New Hampshire, and the remaining towns south of the line were annexed to Essex County, MA. This county is often referred to as "Old Norfolk."
- (7) SUFFOLK COUNTY, 1643.
- (8) HAMPSHIRE COUNTY, 1662 from Middlesex.
- (9) WORCESTER COUNTY, 1731 from Middlesex, Suffolk and Hampshire.
- (10) BERKSHIRE COUNTY, 1761 from Hampshire.
- (11) NORFOLK COUNTY, 1793 from Suffolk.
- (12) FRANKLIN COUNTY, 1811 from Hampshire.
- (13) HAMPDEN COUNTY, 1812 from Hampshire.

NEW YORK included the islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket until about 1690. Counties organized from this area include:

- (14) DUKES COUNTY, 1683, under New York jurisdiction.
- (15) NANTUCKET COUNTY, 1695 from Dukes.

THE DISTRICT OF MAINE, organized in 1652, part of Massachusetts until 1820.

- (16) YORK COUNTY, 1652; included all of Maine which was under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts.
- (17) CUMBERLAND COUNTY, 1760 from York.
- (18) LINCOLN COUNTY, 1760 from York.
- (19) HANCOCK COUNTY, 1789 from Lincoln.
- (20) WASHINGTON COUNTY, 1789 from Lincoln.
- (21) KENNEBEC COUNTY, 1799 from Lincoln.
- (22) OXFORD COUNTY, 1805 from Cumberland and York.
- (23) SOMERSET COUNTY, 1809 from Kennebec.
- (24) PENOBSBOT COUNTY, 1816 from Hancock.

There were more counties developed in Maine after 1820, but not as part of Massachusetts.
